PRESIDENT’S PEN

It has been a great week of progress at the course this week. The texturing on the front fence is now complete with the painting planned for this Saturday. On Tuesday the honours boards went up in the club rooms and boy do they look good. There remains’ a few gaps and some fix ups needed; these will be completed shortly. It’s great when members bring positive ideas to the table to help move the club forward, thanks to Yahoo for some suggestions around the honours boards which are now being explored. A massive thanks to Carol M and Judy T for your work on the gardens by the practice putting green, they look great! It was a pleasure to catch up with the ladies Tuesday in the clubrooms, it was good to be able to take your feedback on board and answer some questions where possible. I will ensure this continues to be a regular event. A lot of semi-final club champ matches are happening this week, so good luck to all those involved.

59ERS RESULTS

Beautiful conditions greeted a field of 42 this week in which B Inglis lead the way with a net 68, with G McGregor only a shot behind him with a 69. R Tito and F Kersten recorded 70's with W Coxhead and M Duggan in on 71. Two's were scored by C Fowler (11th) and G McGregor (16th). G Mcgregor picked up the closest to the pin on the 2nd, R Knapp on the 4th and C Fowler on the 11th. Raffle wins went to M Reynolds, P Bayley and G McGregor with G Bloor taking home the wooden spoon.

LADIES CLUB CAPTAIN UPDATE

Yet another magic day out on the golf course. Old Roger the Dodger was looking splendid as usual in the sunshine - we could have entered him into the chook show in New Plymouth last weekend, but he was having a "foul" day so that was the end of his proposed outing! The course was so still today, no wind, the autumn trees are magnificent with the dappled light of the sunshine. It's nearly time for the ghostly look of winter for the trees but the weather is still mild, so every leaf is hanging on. The final of the midweek pennant is now on this coming Monday. We have decided to run a raffle, so can I ask for donations for the raffle table. Many thanks. Louise has passed her thanks on to those who donated to the raffle table on Monday for their hosting of the 9-hole Pennant - they came out with 200$ plus, from that day. So well done ladies. We need some Queens. We are hoping to have a Queens and Kings Ambrose tournament on the 5th of June Three in a team, at least one man and one lady, 20$ per head. Come and enjoy the fun day. Names to Rob, Matt or myself as soon as possible please. Good luck to the weekend pennant and 9-hole pennant teams coming up for play this week. If anyone has a free 30mins on any day Carol has asked the roadside agapanthus behind the 8th have the dead flower heads taken off. Do what you can over 30-mins and another person can carry on where you left off. Great to see the plasterer at the course today doing the front fence. Also, the honours board has been written up and put into place, it looks great. There is plenty of movement going forward out at Te Ngutu. Thanks to our president Clive for popping in today to update the ladies and answer questions, we are all Tickiteeboo.

SUPERB COURSE FEEDBACK

On Wednesday we had 2 visitors from Miramar play the course. After the round they tracked me down to ensure I passed on their feedback to Ben and Todd, which was to congratulate them for the state of the course which they thought was fantastic in spite of the recent weather conditions. Well done boys and thanks.
