- Clive Porter remains the President of Te Ngutu Golf Club for a futher year. Congratulations to Lynne Newell who steps into the Vice President role and Judy Towers and Matt Kelbrick for holding the Club Captain poitions. Ethan Arbuckle has joined the executive this year and we look forward to his enthusiasm and ideas.

2025 Golfing Calendar – The newly appointed club captains have been busy working on the 2025 golfing calendar. We hope to have the first 4 – 5 months available in the app in the coming weeks.

Reciprocal Rights Update – With the holiday season getting closer it is a good time to remind members of courses in which you receive full reciprocal playing right benefits. I’m pleased to announce that we have recently been able to work with Fielding Golf Club to add them to the list alongside Manor Park and Otaki Golf Clubs. As always make sure you ring ahead and book in to not be disappointed.

Welcome To New Members – During November it is a warm welcome to Andrew Buhler (Full Playing Man), Brad Saxton (Full Playing Man), Hayden Bryant (Full Playing Man), Hazley Butler (Junior Man), Joshua Carradus (Junior Boy), Lucas Hurley (Junior Plus) and Heemi & Hudson Boyle (Junior Plus).

November Golf Stats – In November 2024 Te Ngutu members posted 688 rounds which compared with November 2023 of 787, was well down on course usage. During November Kuka Ropiha (12) and Steve Kara (11) lead the way with most rounds played. Julie Cleaver with 10 rounds lead the way for our ladies. For the month of November off the white tees for men the 3rd hole played the hardest averaging 1.39 strokes over par. Off the yellow tees for the ladies it was also the 3rd hole averaging 2.08 strokes over par. The 11th for both the men and ladies played the easiest.

Tee Booking & Golf NZ App - Using the Tee Booking app to book your Saturday tee time is a great way to ensure you are not delayed when you turn up. It also allows for better catering planning on Saturdays ensuring those last in are not disappointed. If you need help to login or use the app, please see Robert. Did you know that from within the Golf NZ App you can access you're playing handicap for any course in New Zealand. From the "More" menu click on the "WHS Playing Handicap Calculator" button and have a play from there.

Ladies Prizegiving – Congratulations to all those who picked up trophies at Prize Giving this month. Also, a shout out to everyone who helped make the night a success, the food was sensational.
